OLD SERIES VOL. 12, NO. 37.

TERMS OF THE AMERICAN.

THE AMERICAN is published every Saturday in TWO DOLLARS per human to be paid half yearly in advance. No paper discontinued until Ata, arronness are paid. All essentializations or letters on hashess relating to the office, to insure attention, must be POSTPAID.

TO CLUBS.

Three copies to one address, Seven D. Do Do Five dollars in advance will pay for three year's suffernition to the American. One Square of 16 lines, 3 times, One Square, 3 months, Six months, 12 - 2521 25 quit

One year,
Rusiness Cards of Five lays, per morain, Merchants and others suberissing by the year, with the privilege of inserting different advertisements weekly.

13° Larger Advertisements, as per agree E. B. MASSER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. SUNEURY, PA. Business attended to fur the Counties of Northumberhood, Union, Lycoming and Columbia. oa or at Refer to. of of P. & A. Revoult, od al Lower & Barron. Sources & Sundgrass, Reymolds, McFarland & Con-Philist.

Spering, Good & Co., JAMES J. NAILTE. Attorney and Counsellor at Law,

SUNBURY, PA. 10.50 II.I. attend faithfully and promptly to all professional basicess, in Northunberland and Union counties. He is familiar with the OFFICE : Opposite the "Lawrence House," a few doors from the Court House. Sunbury, Aug. 16, 1851.-1y.

J. STEWART DEPUY.

AT 223 North 2d street, above Wood (Burnt District ) Philadelphia, would respectfully call the attention of bisfriends and the public in general, to his large and well selected stock of Carpets, Oil Clobbs, Mattings, Window Shades, Stair Rots, S

Door Matter- He would invite the atten-Ution of dealers and others to his large stock. of Don Matts- which he mountactures in great variety and of splendid quality;
Out Curres, from I yard to b yards wide. wholesale and retail. April 10, 1852,-6m.

HARRISBURG STEAM WOOD

Bed Posts, Balusters, Rosetts, Slot and Quar-

TW This sliop is in STRAWBERRY AL-LEY, near Third Street, and us we intend to please all our customers who want good work done, it is hoped that all the trade will give us a Ten-Pins and Ten-Pin Balls made to order or returned.

The attention of Cabinet Makers and Carpenters is called to our new style of TWIST MOULDINGS. Printer's Rigids at $1 per 100 W. O. HICKOK. February 7, 1852,-1y.

HARDWARE, CUTLERY AND GUNS, Yos B1 & 33 Market Street,

PHILADELPHIA. THE subscribers would call the attention of butters to their stock of Hardware, consisting of Table and Pocket Knives, Guns, Chains, Locks, Holloware, &c., &c. We would recom mend to all, our Endless Chain Pumps, a new article way cotting into general use which we can furnish complete at about one half the price paid for the old style Pumps, also a new aricle of Janus Pace Paor Locks, each With mineral or white knobs. Then I mitels Our stock of Girns is large and well selected, comprising single and double barrels, English and German make. All goods can be returned if upt found to be as represented. Country mer-chants would do well to call on us before pars chasing elsewhere.

Wheelwrights and carriage makers supplied with goods suited to their business, by calling on W. H. & G. W. ALLEN, Nos. 31 & 33 Market Street, Philadelphia.

Pebruary, 21, 1852 .- 6mo.

WM. McCARTY, Bookseller. BROADWAY, SUNBERY, PA. AS just received and for sale, Published Di-1851, price only $6,00.

Judge Rends edition of Blackstones Common taries, in 3 vols, 8 vo. formerly sold at $10,00, and now offered (in feesh binding) at the low price of $6,00.

A Preatise on the laws of Pennsylvania respecting the estates of Decedents, by Thomas F. Gordon, price only $4.00.

Kossuth and the Hungarian war : comprising a complete history of the late struggle for freedom of thut country, with notices of the leading chiefs and statesmen, who distinguished thomselves in council and in the field, containing 288 pages of interesting matter with anthesitle portraits. Kossuth's address to the prople of the limited States, with a portrait, printed on broadenet, and put on rollers after the manner of money, price only 50 cents. Washington's farewell address, uniform style with the above.

February, 21, 1852,—u. Alden's Condensed Reports of Penna-UST Published, and for sale by the subscri-densed Pennsylvania Reports, containing the first volumes of Bioney's Reports. The first vol ume of Aldeng containing Dallas' Reports, 4 valnmes; and Yeates Reparts, volume 1, is also on land, and for sale. The above two volumes are complete within themselves, and contain all of Dallas Reports, 4 volumes, and all of Yeates Reports, A volumes, besides the two first volumes of Binney's Reports, a The third volume is ready and will be put to press immediately.

H. B. MASSER, Agent

Sunbury, Aug. 16, 1851.-

SO S WANTED TO BORROW TWELVE HUNDRED DOLLARS in favo sums of six hundred dollars each, for which good free-hold security will be given. Address M. W. Sunbury, Feb. 28, 1852.—tf.

INK—Boureau's celebrated ink, and also Con-gres ink for sale, whole alle and retail to December 28, 1850. H B MASSER.

From the London Woodsty Times, of May 2d, 1872.

H. B. MASSER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Her Majesty's ship Portland, 1 Volparaiso, February 21, 1852. Sir, -- Enclosed is Captain Morshcad's report of the death by starvation of Comparty sent out by the Patagonian Society in fale of these devoted mission vies ; but this lesson of experience will have its effection-The earnest application of sanguine minds for the propagation of Christianity must, in a climate like Cape Horn, first consider the locality where existence can be insured. I have desired Capt. Morshead to car fully pack the remnants that he has collected, and they will be forwarded to herewith.

I have, &c., Faturay Monusny, Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief. The Secretary of the Admiralty.

> Her Majesty's ship Dido, at sea, lat. 65.58 S., long. 66.0 W., Jan. 22, 1852, Cape Horn West 30 miles. Sir, In compliance with orders from find us in the other heat, handed up in the tessived to go to Picton Island for it, which they reach on the 23rd of March, intendme as He shall see fit. Whether I live or dated October 25, 1851, directing me to ascertain the fate of Captain Gardiner and starving." At this sad intelligence it was arrives from England with stores. Having and my soul to His care and keeping, and his missionary party in Tierra del Fuego, impossible to leave that night, although the got these provisions on Loard, and finding on my way to the Atlantic, it is my meshed by starvation. Having received information from the Rev. G. P. Despard, of Redland, Pristol, 22.) and visited the spot where Captain honorary secretary to the Patagonian Missionary Society. I learnt that the party, sionary Society, I learnt that the party, consisting of Capt. Allen Gardiner, R. N., Lient. Gausson, Mr. Roberts, and Mr. April 23.—They have provisions enough to last for two mouths, but some are very more of His Heavenly kingdom.—Amen.

April 23.—They have provisions enough to last for two mouths, but some are very more of His Heavenly kingdom.—Amen. consisting of Capt. Allen Gardiner, R. N., and catechist; Mr. Maidment, catechist; there the wreck of a boat, with part of low; and, a fox pillering from them, they John Erwin, curpenter; John Balcock, John Bryant, and John Pearce, Cornish with the remains of two bodies, which I site the muzzle of a gun affached by a fisherinen, left England in September, conclude to be Mr. Williams (surgeon) and string to the trigger; and, as they can 1850, in the back Ocean Queen; also John Pearse (Cornish fisherman,) as the only issue pork three times a week, they learnt that stores had been forwarded to papers clearly show the deaths and burial dine off this fox, and salt the remainder; them in June last viv the Ralkland Islands; of all the rest of the mission party.

The two beats were thus about a mile fregal with their supplies. I find a notice TURNING AND SCROLL SAWING their position at Picton I land, Beagle and a half apart. Near the one were of five large fish caught, and an account capture and capenter work cities on hand or leave to their position at Picton I land, Beagle and a half apart. Near the one were of five large fish caught, and an account Capenter work cities on hand or leave to their position at Picton I land, Beagle Channel, being provided with partially-cavern, called by him "Pioneer Cavern," powder thaving been left on board the ship Channel, being provided with partially. Captain Gardiner was lying was a large kept of the number of ducks shot, as their decked launches, that they would all back on Staten Island, Having called at the Falkland Islands, and embarked these from thirst, I prayed that the Lord would will be the state of the st ter Mouldings, Table Logs, Newell Posts, Pat-terns, Awaing Posts, Wagna Hubs, Columns, Round or Octagon Chisel Handles, &c., I sailed thence on the 6th of January, Among Capt, Gardine Staten Island with large ensigns flying at lowing :- Mr. Maidment was so exhaust-the mast-heads to attract attention, and ed yesterday that he did not rise from his al shefted guns into the mouths of St. bed till moon, and I have not seen him and Mr. Williams appears to be failing. John's Harbor, Cook's Harbor, and New Year's Harber, and, observed a flag-stall erected with a flar on it in New Year's la-land, I came to anchor under it at eight as I could not have removed the body. — Frequent mention is made of the fide o'clock on Sunday evening, the 11th of Captain Gardiner's body was lying beside washing into the cavern, carrying away January. The next morning, January the the best, which apparently he had deft, their stores, and endangering their steeping 12th, I sent Lietemant Gaussen in the cutter to ascertain the cause, and went myself at the same time into New Year's Harbor, rected to the cuvern by a hand pointed on the night the surf washes away their and found a ship's long-boat lying handed the rocks, with "P and nxm., v. 58," un- work of the day. On one occasion I find up on the beach, with "Aladin Apenrade" der it.

Captum Gardiner and Mr. Maidment have on her stern. She was fitted with oars cut

Their remains were collected together to escape from the cavern to save their from trees on the spot. By a tally on the beach, I found the schooner J. E. Davidson, all service read by Liout Underwood; a washed by the sea, they kneel down in of New York, W. H. Smuly master, had small inscription was placed on this rock, prayer.

ave the ship up to her anchor, I fully fathoms of chain in twenty-two fathons of

I sailed the next day, but could not attempt the Straits of Le Maire, as it still mixed Cape St. John, I stood along the ow of Port Vancouver, the only harbour n the South side of Staten Island, and seeing no signs of the party being there, 1 made direct for Picton Island till the 17th good view of Richmondroads. I en-

The next day, Jan. 18, it blew a heavy was seen on a rock across a river, which we instantly made for, and found written,

"Go to Spaniard Harbor." On another

Corve-toads for the night.

fathous of chain.

called here on the 15th of October, 1851, near his own tent; the colors of the boats on her way to Picton Island, to relieve the missioners. I returned to the ship at the bys of nucketry, were the only tributerof sught on board, there were no indications how or where any vessel could have seen lost. It blew a perfect burricane that night off the land; and, being anable to spected to be blown off with the anchor of cable; but the ship held on with ninety blew fresh from the southward. Having Having arrived at Picton Island on the sh of December, 1850, they landed and pitched their tents on the 6th, but were when the weather proving very thick and were named the Pioneer and Speedwell; were named the Pioneer and Speedwell; them on December 18. The ship sailed compelled to bear up, and slood along the st and south coast of New Island, getting have commenced.

outhward, I bore up and unchored in it appears to have been blowing fresh, as of limpets," gale from the southward, but the ship rode well with two anchors ahead and 100 both boots swamped their dingles and lost Jan. 19.-The wind having moderated barbor, but returned again the next day, the night and shifted to the northward and joined the Speedwell. Bath bout weighed at four in the morning, and then weighed for Bloomfield harbor, but on this occasion the Pioneer grounded, and at up through Goree-roads and stood and, passing Cape Maria, beat up the rejoined her the next morning. On Janland, passing Cape Maria, beat up the egain falling fight, it was late before we where they had gone to beach them and could tow the ship to her berth in a cove formed by an injet on the coast, called by neer was thrown by a squall into a nest of captain Gardiner "Banner Cove," and the rocks, and she was not affout till the 17th of January. They left Lenox harber on The following day, Jan. 20, was devoted the 20th of January for Bloomfield harbor to scouring the coast and the adjacent islet; to refit their boats, but, finding the natives, and after many hours of truitless search, there in great force, they bore up for without a sign of the party, and when on Spaniard harbor, which they reached on cruited from that day of bodily and mental the point of giving them up, some writing

many vicissitudes from the surfs and storms | selves, as b

searching one of the numerous wigwams beach, and, covering her with a tent, they without crutches I could not possibly effect on the part of their sorrowing friends in the neighborhood we read on one of their made a dermitery of her, the Speedwell it. Mr. Mailmost meet bindly not made poles, "A bottle under this pole," but we being higher up at the mouth of a river, could not find it, although we sent for which they named Cook's river, after a shovels and crowbars, and dug deep and lady and benefacte as to the missions at all mander A. Gardiner and the whole of the carefully for it; but it was evident, from Feb. 18 .- The fide rose higher than usu- set out together, but soon found that I had some fragments of stores found on the spot, al, and I find the following remark by Cap- not strength to proceed, and was obliged to September, 1850, to Picton Island, the that the mission had rested here.

September, 1850, to Picton Island, the that the mission had rested here.

Accordingly, the next morning, Jan.

Their fordedlips will deeply deplore the fitted early for Spanish Harbor, and floating about in the surf, and the beach yesterday that he did not rise from his bed entered it on the same evening at seven strewn with its contents in all directions." clock. Our notice was first attracted by By this unforseen accident I lost a refer- consequently I tasted nothing yesterday. 1 a best lying on the beach about one mile ence Biele, my private journal, and some and a half inside of Cape Kinnaird; it was useful memorandums, chiefly on missionary blowing very fresh from the south, and the subjects, which I have been collecting for ship tode uneasity at her anchor. I in- years, also my rings, and a purse containintly sent Lieutenant Pigott and Mr. ing 8/. Ss. all the money I possessed, with erts, the master, to reconnaitre and re- the exception of 5d. in copper. All my writing this at 10 o'clock in the forencon .furn immediately, as I was anxious to get warm clothing was washed away, but prothe Admiralty by the Daphne. Such as the ship to sea again in safety for the night videntially, thrown up again by the tide many mercies I enjoy—a comfortable bedton be transmitted by the mail are sent they returned shortly, bringing some books in the course of two or three days." and papers, having discovered the bodies of Captain Gardiner and Mr. Maidment boat, and Captain Gardiner removes to a tent to make more room.

From the papers found Mr. Maidment | March 13 .- This tent, named a hermitwas dead on the 4th of September, and age by Captain Gardiner, is burnt down .-Captain Gardiner could not possibly have It appears that two casks of biscuits and survived the 6th of September, 1851. On and one of pork had been buried at Picton wisely and mercifully appointed, and pray weather looked very threatening; neither the natives still troublesome, they painted incholy duty to report, for their lordships! The ancroid barometer nor symperzometer the notices on the rocks mentioned above, oformation, that the whole party have per- being very unlavorable, I held on for the buried some bottles, and returned to Spanford-harbor on the 29th of March.

In the beginning of April another of the her great stores, with quantities of clothing | kill him by putting a piece of pork oppothe sick) go on short allowance. May 10 .- The preserved meat is out, ince." Again, on the 4th of September, May 22.—Set apart for special prayer affining to Mr. Mai liment, he writes,—"H on behalf of the sick, for supplies of food and, being too weak to climb into it again; boat, which they endeavored to counteract had died by the side of it. We were di-

June 11 .- J. Erwin and another of the and ships struck bull-must, and three vol- party take the scurvy; and misfortune seems hovering around them. Their fishsame time as Listennat Gaussen, who re- respect I could pay to this lofty-minded ing notes swet away, and J. Badcock dies are time as Listenant Gaussen, who re-ried that pieces of wreck were on the man and his devoted companions, who on the 28th of June, and is buried on a and last excepting the flag which he have periched in the cause of the Gospel bank under the trees at Cook's River. for the want of timely supplies; and before After performing the last offices they retire noon the Dido was proceeding safely on to their boat for prayers.

In looking over the papers found in the short allowance, and latterly even this carern, I am enabled to trace out the wan- having been cortailed the party are utterly berings and many of the sufferings which helpless. Everything found in the shape beset the party on to the time of their sin- of food is cooked and eaten-a penguin, a hapmy end. Some of the papers are on shag, a half devoured fish washed upon the ivale affairs, unconnected with their por shore, and even the salted fox, washed out ion, and some on religious subjects, but I of the cavern, is thrown up again on the to only from those which bear upon beach, and used for load. Captain Cardiner writes:----We have now remaining half a duck, about one pound of salt pork, the same quantity of damaged tea, a very ompelled to re-embark in consequence of four pints of peas, to which I may add six the annoyance of the natives, until their mice. The mention of this last item in boats could be got ready. Their boats our list of provisions may startle some of our list of provisions may startle some of our friends, should it ever reach their ears, have survived Cappain Gardiner, who could of them with a relish, and have already the next day, and their troubles seem to enten several of them. They are very tender, and taste like rabbit."

deavored to heat up to Picton Island Both boats immediately get under weigh for the opposite shore, on the south count muscles, and feel the want of food, and as to open the Beagle Channel, when the of Tierra-del-Fuego, to a place they have wind falling, and a current setting to the named Bloomfield Harbor, as the natives sing to them. Captain Gardiner writes,annoyed them ; but before clearing the "After living on muscles for a fortnight, anchorage the Speedwell got on the rocks, I was compelled to give them up, and my tost her anchor, and injured her rudder; food is now muscle broth and the soft part

July 28. Captain Gardiner writes of their garden seeds used for broth are now

August 14.-Captain Gardiner takes to his bed, but a rock weed is discovered nourishment from

Aug. 23 .- John Erwin dies. Aug. 26. - J. Bryant dies, and Mr Maidment buries them both in one grave. Jobs Pearce, the remaining boatman, is cast down at the loss of his comrades, and wandering in his mind, but Mr. Williams exection. The remaining remorks I tranthe 24th of January.

Here they seemed to have experienced scribe literally; they must speak for them-

it. Mr. Mailment most kindly cot me a (two forked sticks,) but it was with no slight exertion and fatigue, in his weak state. We until noon, and I have not seen him since, cannot leave the place where I am, and know not whether he is in the body, or injoying the presence of the gracions God whom he has served so faithfully, I am Blessed be my heavenly Father for the Feb. 28.-Mr. Williams is unwell in the excessively weak, scarcely able to turn in my bed-at least a very great exertion; but I am by His abounding grace kept in perfect grade, refreshed with a sense of my Savionr's love, and an assurance that all is one of the papers found was legibly, but Island to disencumber the boats, and nour-without a date, "If you will walk along ishing food being wanted, as Mr. Williams the beach for a mile and a half you will and J. Badcock had got the scurvy, they is all cast upon G d, and I am only waiting on the south side. Delay not, we are ing to remain there till the expected vessel die may it be in Him; I commend my body Vicarage, Maidstone, Kent, friend and exeearnestly pray that He will take my dear wife and children under the shadow of His wings, comfort, guard, strengthen, and sanctify them wholly, that we may tegether in a brighter and eternal world praise and adore His goodness and grace in redeeming us Captain Gardiner, enclosed, viz :- A mahogdisease gaining on the others, they become with His precious blood, and placking us as any case, containing two silver pencil- ted whether she did not hear some one whom he served so faithfully; under these memorandum-books, twenty-two books, a mint-water, which he had mixed, and it has having been exposed to the air and sea for May 12.—Is a note of the biscuit being strengthen me to procure some. He gra-Among Capt. Cardiner's papers, which short, and altogether as they have not supplies for more than three weeks, all (but I was enabled to get out, and scoop up a sufficient supply from some that trickled down at the stern of the boat by means of one of my Indiambber overshoes. What combined mercies am I receiving at the hands of my Heavenly Father; blessed be Bis hely

"Sept. 5.-Great and marvellous are the eving kindness of my gracious God unto me. He has preserved me hitherto, and for four days, although without bodily food vithout any feelings of hanger or thirst."

These last remarks are not written so plainly as the previous day's, and I concluded that they were the last; but I find another paper, dated September 6, addresed to Mr. Williams, and written in pencil the whole being very indistinct, and some parts quite obliterated, but nearly as fol-

"My dear Mr. Williams .- The Lord has een fit to call home another of our little company. Our dear departed brother left the boat on Tuesday afternoon, and has not since returned. Doubtless he is in the preence of his Redcemer, whom he served faithfully. Yet a little while, and though . . . the Almighty to sing the praises throne. I neither hunger nor thirst hough . . days without food . . .-Maidment's kindness to me . . heaven. "Your affectionate brother in . .

"ALLEN F. GARDINER. 4 September 6, 1851,1

From the above extracts I must therefore onclude that the two bodies found at Cook's River were those of Mr. Williams and J. Pearce, and, considering their weak state. it is unreasonable to suppose they could labor of Capt. Gardiner and the party, be youd it being marked by an earnestness and levotion to the cause; but, as a brother officer, I beg to record my admiration of his conduct in the moment of peul and danger, and his energy and resources entitle him to high professional credit. At one time I had him surrounded by hostile natives and dreading an attack, yet forbearing to fire, the party in the other boat, ... They are and the savages, awed and subdued by the all extremely weak and helpless; even solemnity of his party, kneeling down in prawer. At another, having failed to heave off his boat when on the rocks, he digs a charmel under her, and diverts a fresh water which they boil down to a jelly, and find stream into it, and I find him making an anther by filling an old bread cask with stones heading it up; and securing wooden crosses over the heads with cham.

There could not be a doubt as to the ultimate auccess of a mission here, if liberally supported; but I venture to express a hope had no occasion to use it." that no society will hazard another intrusting their supplies to practical men acquainted with commercial affairs, who would have sgon at a glance the hopeless improbability till the 1st of February, when the Pioneer Sept. 3 --- Wishing if possible to spare and forfeiting her insurance for the freight- whenever she wants to 1/A few minutes rion of making a Nebuchainezzar of myself. rock adjoining we read-"You will find was driven on the rocks, her bow stove in, him (Mr. Maidment) the trouble of attends age of a few stores from the Felkland is afterwards, the boy was whipped on some in Spaniard Harbor." On a third piece and irreparable. The party in this boat ing on me and for the mutual comfort of all lands. Painful and unsatisfactory as my reof rock we read, "Dig below," which we then took to a cavera, but finding it damp, I purposed, if practicable, to go to the river port of the fate of the party is, I trust it | HORRIBLE FATE OF THE PATAGO- instantly did, but found only a brok in Lot- and the tide washing into it, they hauled and take up my quarters in the boat. This may be considered conclusive by their lord- the English antiquarian, was so enormously NIAN MISSION.

This was attempted on Saturday last, feeling that ships, and setting at rest any further anxiety corpulent that a lady of Clifton used to call

> I have, &c., W. H. Monsunau, Captain. Rear-Admiral Moresby, C. B.

Her Majessy's Ship Dido, { Valparaiso, Feb. 21. Sir,-In reference to my letter of the 22nd of January last, relating to Captain Gardiner and the missionary party. I have the honor to enclose two unfinished letters written by Captain Gardiner shortly before his death (found in the cavern, and addressed to his son and daughter,) for immediate transmission to England to await the disposal of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty .-The remaining books, papers, and other articles found near the beats are enclosed in a case, awaiting any opportunity you may an anecdote of a man accustomed to make deem desirable for sending them. I enclose long prayers, who had over-persuaded a a list of these effects to the case, one packet guest greatly against his inclination to stay addressed to yourself as my commander-in- to breakfast. He prayed and prayed, till chief, being the original documents on which his impatient guest began to think of edging my letter is founded, and I suggest it should away quietly, and walking off-but in atbe retained until you should be satisfied with the correctness of the substance of the who was asieep in his chair. above letter, dated the 22 d of January, 1852, and, as none of these articles can be claimed by the Missionary Society, I also suggest the proprie'y of their being for- in reply. warded to the Rev. E. G. Marsh, Aylesford cutor of Captain Gardiner.

I am, &cc., W. H. Morshead, Captain.

Rear-Admiral Moresby, C. B. A list of articles belonging to the late brands from the burning to bestow upon us cases, two halfpence, a piece of a the speaking with her down stairs! "Oh no, "Sept. 4 .- There is now no room to doubt spyglass, a piece of a quadrant, a leather self, Betty," replied the maiden, "with that my dear fellow-taborer has ceased from ease, containing letters and papers, a sketch psalms, but let's have no kims, Betty, I have his earthly toils, and joined the company of book, two pocket books one Patagonian vo- a great objection to hims." Betty courtseyed, the redoemed in the presence of the Lord, cabalary (manuscript), manuscripts, three withdrew, and took the hint. circumstances, it was a merciful Providence | few pamphlets and periodicals, an atlas and that he left the boat, as I could not have chart. Eight letters addressed to the mis- village to a tavern keeper, how many liremoved the body. He left a little pepper- sion party, in Captain Morshead's care, all quors can I get for two long bits?'

Examination of the Alphabet .- Which

Which are the most extensive letters The Sens.

The are the most fond of comfort ? The

Which are the most egotistical letters ?-The l's.

Which are the noisy letters ? The Ohs.

Which are the greatest bores ! The Which are the most sensible letter !-

The Wise.

HENRY CLAY is gradually declining-like the bright setting sun slowly sinking beneath. It will as readily ignite as a candle, and the the western hills, he is expected soon to be steamboat men use it for torches, instead of seen and heard no more. But the memory pine knots. Its quality is supposed to be far of the good lives and speaks. The recol- superior to the undiscovered coal mines of lection of the long line of Christian patriots Japan, in search of which the Administration who have acted so nobly and so heroically, has sent a large naval force. is next to the revelation from above, our country's richest treasure.

IMPORTATION OF NEWS AND PRIESTS. - AMONG the passengers who arrived at New Orleans on the 12th inst., in the French ship Belle destination is Texas and Missouri. There with the handle," were in the steerage of the Belle Assize 294 развенцега.

but, "circumstanced as we are, we partake scarcely have fixed over the 6th of Septem- the eye rests upon a potato patch or a flower however. garden. Heart makes home precious, and it oer, 185.1.
I will offer no opinion on the missionary is the only thing that can.

of looking glass on a fruit tree will frighten the distance of 600 miles. tway every bird that approaches it, while the ame article would attract more fair ones than a load of cherries.

all probability be effected; if not tie long straw around the trunk of the tree, which is said to be an effectual cure.

Mass. Ploughman says "Warm a small log off! quantity of hird, and inix with it a small quantity of gun-powder, and pour into the throat. I once prepared a second dose, but

The other day one of widow B.'s admirers was complaining of the tooth-ache.-Mrs. B.'s smart boy immediately spoke up of any ship not chartered for the occasion Well, sir, why don't you do as ma does ! sailing out of her way, breaking her articles She takes her tooth out and puts 'em back won't, I say, I won't have any. I've no no-

ANECDOTES OF FAT MEN .- Dr. Beddoes him the "travelling haystack." He was once requested by a butcher to give it out that he bought his meat of him, as it would rebound to the credit of any shop to have the feeding of such a Falstaff. At Cambridge resided a huge professor, and the paivours were wont to exclaim:- "God bless you sir!77 when he chanced to walk over their work. In the Court of Louis XV, lived two lusty noblemen, who were related to each other. The King said to one of them, when rallying him on his corpulency, "I suppose you take little or no exerxise," "Your majesty will parden me," replied the bulky duke, court I generally walk round my cousin two or three times every morning.

Counny'r help laughing the other day, at tempting it he waked up the old man's son,

"How soon will your father be through ?" whispered the guest.

Has in got to the Jews?" asked the boy

"No," said the other.

" Wal, then he ain't half through," whispered the boy, and composed himself again to his nap, whereupon the guest bolted at

A MAIDEN LADY suspecting her female servant was regaling her beau upon the cold mutton of the larder, called Betty, and inqui-

I say, landlord, said a man in a country

'Five,' said mine host. 'Well, fork 'em over. Come up, my beys and drink. The liquoring completed, he pulls out two old worn out bridle blts, which were long enough is all conscience. It is needless to say how savage the landlord looked when his customer walked coolly out amidst the shouts of the crowd. loping .- This substance, which a few years since was thought to be confined to a few marine plants, has been gradually traced through the mineral, vegetable and Which are the longest letters? The animal kingdoms, and its general diffusion throughout nature is rendered exceedingly probable. At the Paris Academy of Science Which are the leguminous letters ! The M. Charin recently read a paper in continnation of his researches on the presence of iodine in the air, the water, the soils, and products of the Alps of France.

A COAL MINE has been discovered in Kentucky, which appears to be inexhaustible. The coal borns like gas, imparting great heat.

ADVICE TO MARRIED LADIES -A writer at the South gives the following advice to

"Should you find it necessary, as you undoubtedly will many of you, to chastise your Assize, from Havre, there were twelve nuns husbands, you shall perform this affectionate and twenty-seven Catholic priests. Their duty with the soft end of the broom, and not

It is remarkably pleasant to return from California with fifty thousand dollars in-A crust of bread, a pitcher of water, and a experience and just fifty cents in your pockthatched roof, and love; there is happiness et. The moment one touches the wharf, for you, whether the day be rainy or sunny. with his well worn portmanteau, he becomes It is the heart that makes the home, whether a landed proprietor,-that's a consolation THE longest known current of modern lava on the earth is in feeland, extending 60

Sxoons says that there is a marked differ- miles; while from the foot of the largest nce between birds and women. As an il- volcanie cone on the southern limb of the stration of this he cites the fact that a bit moon, diverging streams of lava flew to "What did Mr. - die of ?" asked a simple neighbor. "Of a complication of disorders," replied his friend. "How do BARK BOUND TREES. - Scrape with a knife you describe a complication, my good sir ?" and wash with very strong soap sads, once or "He died," rejoined the other, "of two twice during a season, and the cure will in physicians, an apothecary and a surgeon." A Yaukee pedler, recommending a scythe, said that one of the same kind of seyther was so sharp that they hong it on a tree, Choken Carrie. - A correspondent of the in Kentucky, and its shadow out a man's Dr. W. A. ALCOYT, the Vegetarian, lately reported dead, has written to the Boston Journal, saying that he is not dead, but has lived a quarter of a century beyond his time already.

Scene-Hotel dining room. Actors-Waiter and old Geot. Waiter--Will you have some sallad sir? Old Gent, (gruffly)-No, 1

Good intention is not reformation.